Rules of the Road for Charlotte Citipass Offers

When do I present my coupon? Discount certificates should be presented to the establishment prior to ordering goods or services.

What about at restaurants? How do those offers work? When dining out, order two or more main course entrees (may include sandwich, salad, or pizza items unless otherwise noted.) Your server will deduct the least expensive item (up to the maximum dollar amount stated on the certificate).

What if a restaurant offers other specials? Unless otherwise noted on the discount certificate, certificates cannot be used in conjunction with any other offers or discounts.

When dining in groups? A maximum of three (3) discount certificates will be accepted by the restaurant. For example, if there are six (6) or more people dining together, the restaurant will accept three (3) discount certificates and deduct the three (3) least expensive items.

Gratuity? In general, the tip should total 15 to 20% of your bill prior to deducting the discount. Also, some restaurants do reserve the right to automatically add gratuity when a discount certificate is used.

Holidays are excluded from the use of discount certificates. All offers are invalid on Christmas Eve and Day, New Years Eve and Day, Thanksgiving, Valentines Day, Mothers Day, Fathers Day, Sweetest Day, Easter, St. Patrick's Day. Regional events such as Race Weeks may also be excluded at the individual restaurant's discretion.

All participating merchants have entered into a legal agreement with Charlotte Citipass. Charlotte Citipass cannot be held liable for any events beyond its control. This includes the failure of a business to honor the certificate due to a change in management or ownership, closing of a business or any other circumstances.

We hope you enjoy!

GREAT WOLF LODGE.

Fort Mackenzie

Fort Mackenzie is a four-story interactive treehouse water park offering 17 levels of super-soaking fun for the family. Younger kids can climb with their parents to reach the slides at the top. The older ones will love making their way over suspension bridges and cargo nets to spray stations and soaker buckets. (Watch out below!) The grand daddy of soaker buckets is the 1,000-gallon tipper that sits atop Fort Mackenzie. Every few minutes, the warning bell clangs, and the bucket begins to tip its contents over the roof and onto the giggling group below.

The Loose Moose Bar & Grill™

Open daily for breakfast, lunch and dinner. If you wake up hungry like a ... you know what ... head for the great breakfast spread at Camp Center. Pile your plate(s) with made-to-order omelets and waffles, hash browns, bacon, muffins, pancakes, fruit and more. For dinner, the wood-fired table features a carving station, lodge made soups, salad bar, pizza, seafood specialties, nightly entree specials, and loads of kids' favorites. Ask the lodge about availability. On select days we offer a full featured à la carte menu and no buffet.

MagiQuest

Ready for a challenge? Delivered by a Golden Ring? It's all part of MagiQuest, a one-of-a-kind, live action adventure game. Arrive with high-tech wand, your family must solve magical challenges throughout the forest to get power (and points) and move to higher levels of the game.

Georges Brasserie at Piedmont Town Center is Giorgio Bakatsias' vision of a flavor driven tribute to the simple elegance of French brasserie fare that offers an atmosphere of joyful elegance and hospitality to his guests. Georges welcomes you into a place of warmth, radiance and delight.

Our 100 seat patio overlooks the Piedmont Row fountain where guests can relax with a variety of approachable French wines, imported beers and daily drink specials. Or you may join us in our bar where conversational table arrangements complement our display of fresh oysters, shrimp, clams, crab and lobster at our raw bar. We serve full lunch and dinner menu in the bar as well as a mid day light fare bar menu.

The main dining room is showcased by a hand blown, one of a kind chandelier and features comfortable booth and table seating where one can enjoy traditional brasserie dishes of onion soup gratinee, steak frites or beef bourguignon with house made buttered noodles. Chef's modern twists come into play with the chilled blue crab and avocado appetizer or the fresh take on traditional nicoise components served with grilled tuna. Our private dining room is available for groups of twelve to fifty and comes complete with a flat screen monitor for viewing presentations or programs. Custom menus can be provided for all groups.

Sunday brunch features crepes, omelettes, benedicts, beignets, delicious champagne cocktails and Georges top shelf Bloody Mary complete with jumbo shrimp.

We are honored to have received an Open Table Diner's Choice Award within two months of our opening and voted "Best Patio" on numerous occasions. We hope to see you for a business or social lunch, dinner or Sunday brunch soon. Bon appetit!

At Cantina 1511, great regional Mexican food means more than tacos and melted cheese although the Queso Fundido – and Carne Asada Tacos are not to be missed. Specialties like Salmon al Pastor showcase the lighter, citrus-infused palette of the Yucatan coast. And if you brought an appetite, you’ll love the Barbacoa de Puerco, slow cooked, braised, shredded pork. Recipes use an array of imported chilies, and can be made milder or spicier at your request. Cantina’s turquoise and gold walls, outside patio, and 69 variety tequila bar all combine to make any occasion a celebration.

We still have the old time charm.

Established in 1985, Cajun Queen is independently owned and operated, and Chef William Wessling has been cooking up your New Orleans favorites from day one.

Even though the Old Queen's had a facelift, don't worry: she hasn't lost that old time charm. We've kept the house's fun 'Nawlins style and simply added a few amenities to make her good as new.

Our first phase of renovations, completed in the fall of 2005, brought a brand new back-of-house with a new kitchen, dish room, and waiters' pantry. Our most recent phase of renovations has ushered us into the new millennium with two new patios (one covered), new bathrooms upstairs and down, a smoking deck to make us completely smoke-free indoors, and a revamped bar that's more than twice its original size.

Not only does our new bar feature a brand new Hi-def LCD TV to watch your favorite games on, it also features a full wine list paired by Chef William Wessling and new beers and liquors added every week.

With exciting twists on old favorites, like our Mango Margarita or New Orleans Iced Tea, and drink specials every day, you'll tickle your taste-buds silly!

Enjoy the outside air while being protected from the elements in our brand new covered patio. With a view of Independence Park, Charlotte's oldest, you'll be sure to find the perfect spot to wash the day's worries away.

Join us for dinner and see what all the fuss is about. And...Live Jazz! every night with some of Charlotte's best musicians.

KITCHEN & BAR

Welcome to New South Kitchen & Bar where contemporary Southern cuisine meets traditional Southern hospitality. The owners of Dakotas, a long time Charlotte favorite for upscale Southern cuisine, wanted to make great Southern food available to diners every day. After a year of planning and several months of construction we are excited to invite you dine with us in our new digs. Our expanded bar, live entertainment, outside seating & new menu format are just few of the changes our long time regulars and new guests a like are sure to enjoy.

Our food offerings are based on simple cooking techniques applied to the freshest, top quality, and when available, local ingredients. Typically, there are 20 entrée offerings nightly with an emphasis on seafood from the Carolinas. We also feature fresh vegetables, hand crafted cheeses, salads & pastas. Our breads and desserts are made in house daily. Dakotas' favorites, Fried Green Tomatoes, Shrimp & Grits and Crab Cakes, have returned as well as a few other Southern staples.

The wine list is sure to please any guest, including the connoisseur. Our 40/60, sixty wines under $40, list is an eclectic mix of wines from all over the world. California, Spain & France are well represented as well as local wines from North Carolina & Virginia. We offer an extensive half bottle list and a carefully selected captains' list.

Chef Kyle Burke & Pam Menzel are a husband & wife team who have been best friends and soul mates for the past 14 years.

Chef Kyle graduated the Culinary Institute of America and has worked in various fine dining establishments over the past 20 years and has won “Best Desserts of Charlotte” for several years.

The restaurant name “Maestro’s” is a tribute to Pam’s parents, Richard & Rosemarie Menzel, who have passed away but are still ever present in Kyle & Pam’s hearts. Richard & Rosemarie were a true husband & wife team who ran a violin shop together for over 30 years.

Pam’s father, Richard, owned a violin shop and was an accomplished violinist who also had a passion for fine dining. Rosemarie, (Rose) Pam’s beloved mother was the embodiment of grace and elegance. Hence the name Maestro’s seemed befitting for the restaurant... Maestro meaning “master musician” and “rose” the first part of Pam’s mom’s name.

Chef Kyle, Pam & the rest of our Restaurant Family (staff) extend a warm welcome to Maestro’s Bar & Bistro to you, your families, friends, and colleagues. We hope that each of you have a memorable and enjoyable dining experience with us and that you will eventually become part of our extended family.
